

#6 PHILADELPHIA MUSEUM OF ART SCHUYLKILL RIVER BANKS

This tour is for those interested in seeing some of Philadelphia's most photogenic locations on the banks of the Schuylkill River.

We will start at the bottom of the Art Museum steps, walk around the Art Museum to the Fairmount Water Works and then proceed along the Schuylkill River Bank. This tour offers wonderful views of the center city skyline, Boat House Row and the wide variety of flora and fauna on the banks of the Schuylkill River. Starting time to be arranged. Begins at the steps of the Art Museum.

#7 EASTERN STATE PENITENTIARY

Eastern State Penitentiary was once the most famous prison in the world, but stands today in ruin, a haunting world of crumbling cell blocks and empty guard towers. Known for its grand architecture, vaulted, sky-lit cells that once held many of America's most notorious criminals. These features make it a photographer's dream. Starting time to be arranged. Begins at the entrance.

#1 RITTENHOUSE SQUARE

This historic urban park is located in one of the most picturesque neighborhoods in Philadelphia and one my favorites to photograph. This tour will take you into the Square to photograph its people, flora and design. Then we will explore the neighborhood and discover many wonderful compositions with its elegant 19th and 20th century architecture.

Starting time to be arranged. Begins at 18th and Walnut

#2 THE ITALIAN MARKET

The oldest open-air market in the country, the 9th Street Italian Market thrives to this day. It's a popular destination for neighborhood shoppers as well as national and international travelers. It is the perfect location for photographing an authentic street market with its people, products and bustling market life. You will have an opportunity to do a little shopping yourself! Starting time to be arranged. Begins at 9th and Christian Streets, SW corner.

#3 SOUTH STREET / PENN'S LANDING

Along South Street, visitors and residents, teenagers and adults, preppies and punk rockers, artists and attorneys all mix seamlessly together. The street is always buzzing no matter if you visit on a Tuesday afternoon or a Friday night. It is the perfect blend for those who want to photograph people, unique architecture and street life. From South Street we will walk over the South Street Bridge to Penn's Landing on the Delaware River. With its river view, interesting monuments, historic naval vessels and the Benjamin Franklin Bridge, it offers a variety of photographic opportunities. Starting time to be arranged. Begins at Isaiah Zagar's Magic Garden, 1020 South Street.

#4 OLDE CITY/HISTORIC DISTRICT

On this tour you will walk through the Historic district of Philadelphia, home of the Liberty Bell and Independence Hall, Benjamin Franklin's Court and other historic buildings and museums. We will stop along the way in Old City to see Betsy Ross's House, Elfreth's Alley (the oldest, continuously lived in residential street in the US) The Quaker meeting House, and Chris Church. And we can't pass up Old City Coffee!

Starting time to be arranged. Begins at The Liberty Bell, Sixth and Chestnut Streets, NE corner

#5 SOCIETY HILL

While walking through the Society Hill area with its alleys, and peaceful pedestrian side streets, and 18th and 19th century-houses you will have many opportunities to photograph unique architecture, street scenes and the historic serene Old Pine, Saint Mary's and Saint Peter's churches and their church yards.

Starting time to be arranged. Begins at the visitors center at 6th and Market streets.
